

Resources

Beginning September 22, the Center for Hospitality and Tourism Research is open for faculty and students Monday-Friday from 9:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. in 148HES. Resources will be available by showing an OSU ID during regular hours. Materials must be returned at closing. The center is equipped with a conference table and chairs for your convenience. An e-mail database of frequent business and leisure travelers will soon be available for use. For more information on the Center, its resources and services, please contact us.

- Academic Journals
- Trade & Professional Magazines
- Useful Links