

Resources

Resources for Oklahoma Seniors

Senior Info Line
1-800-211-2116

This toll-free, statewide telephone number links older Oklahomans and their caregivers to information and assistance at the local level. Calls are automatically routed to a specialist housed in one of the 11 Area Agencies on Aging or sponsoring agencies nearest to the caller.

Dial 211 Dial 2-1-1 For Health and Human Services Information

- Clothing, Food, Housing, Disability Services, Counseling, Health Care, Senior Services and more.
 - Information on free and low-cost services offered by hundreds of LOCAL government and non-profit agencies.
- 2-1-1 is a Free, Confidential Call From Any Phone
- Available 24 hours a day, every day.
 - Information, referral, problem solving and advocacy.
 - Professionally trained call specialists answer.
 - Assistance in English and 150 other languages plus TTY.

Oklahoma Department of Human Services - Aging Services Division

The Aging Services Division helps develop program to support the independence and protect the quality of life of older adults while promoting citizen involvement. Professional Organizations

American Geriatrics Society

The American Geriatrics Society is a non-profit organization in which the society's goal is to build a bridge between the research and practice of Geriatrics and the Public.

American Psychological Association

The American Psychological Association is a scientific and professional organization that represents psychology in the United States. American Psychological Association is the largest association of psychologists worldwide.

American Society on Aging

American Society on Aging is committed to enhancing the knowledge and skills of those working with other adults and their families.

Association for Gerontology in Higher Education

This Association's goal is to increase commitment and foster the development of higher education in the field of gerontology through education, research, and public service.

Gerontological Society of America

Gerontological Society of America provides researchers, practitioners, educators, and policy makers with opportunities to advance, understand, integrate, and use basic and applied research information on aging to improve the quality of life for the aging.

National Council On Aging

National Council On Aging is the nation's first association of organizations and professionals dedicated to promoting the dignity, self-determination, well being, and contributions of older persons.

Related Agencies

Administration on Aging

AoA is the Federal focal point and advocate agency for older persons and their concerns. AoA works to heighten awareness among other Federal agencies, organizations, groups, and the public about the valuable contributions that older Americans make to the Nation and alerts them to the needs of older people.

Alliance for Aging Research

Alliance for Aging Research is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to supporting and accelerating the pace of medical discoveries to improve the human experience of the aging.

Alzheimer's Association

The Alzheimer's Association is the largest national health organization supporting the issue of Alzheimer's research and care.

AARP

AARP is a nonprofit, nonpartisan membership organization for those people who are over the age of 50.

American Physical Therapy Association - Section on Geriatrics

Geriatrics advocates for older adults and promotes the highest quality of living for aging individuals through the physical therapy profession.

American Sociological Association

American Sociological Association (ASA) is a non-profit membership association dedicated to advancing sociology as a scientific discipline and profession serving the public.

Arthritis Foundation

The Arthritis Foundation was developed to help the 70 million adults and nearly 300,000 children who suffer from arthritis.

Center for Medicare Education

The Center is a resource for public agencies and private organizations that provide consumer education about the Medicare program and its health plan options.

International Association of Gerontology

International Association of Gerontology goals are to promote gerontological research, training in the field of aging, and the interests of gerontological organizations in international affairs.

National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (N4A)

National Association of Area Agencies on Aging's mission is to build the capacity of its members to help older persons and persons with disabilities live with dignity and choices in their homes and communities for as long as possible.

National Indian Council on Aging

National Indian Council on Aging strives to improve the lives of the nation's Indian seniors through advocacy, employment training, dissemination of information, and data support.

Oklahoma State University Health Services Center - Tulsa, OK

The OSU Center for Health Sciences.