

Special Assistance

SPECIAL ASSISTANCE

Student Disability Services at Oklahoma State University provide support services to students with documented disabilities. Their goal is to provide assistance that will allow equal opportunity and equal access to education for each individual student. Academic support services include specialized testing, classroom accommodations, recorded textbooks, technological assistance, and other services as necessary. Students may ask for services by contacting Student Disability Services. Student Disability Services is part of University Counseling Services (UCS). For more information, please visit the UCS Home Page.

For more information on Assistive Technology and Web Accessibility, please visit the AT Website.